Professor Ajeet N. Mathur
Faculty Chair,
Family Businesses: Organisation, Strategies, Internationalisation and Succession

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are glad to announce our Programme 'Family Businesses: Organisation, Strategies, Internationalisation and Succession' during September 23 to 25, 2020 at IIMA Campus. Two-thirds of all businesses in India are family owned and controlled. Yet, there has been scant attention to the special characteristics of family businesses that require reconciling family needs, hopes, wishes with the demands of managing a successful business.

We invite participation from family business owners and managers interested in building upon and leveraging distinct strengths of family businesses. Here is an opportunity to think through and develop appropriate solutions to respond to the complexities, uncertainties, and challenges in family businesses for sustainable growth, creation of wealth across generations and attracting and retaining professional talent.

The programme is designed on the basis of knowledge from research and practices all over the world, including IIMA research. Family business CEOs would also be sharing their experiences. This Programme is a platform for key role-holders to bring issues of concern and work on them. The themes chosen cover the four key topics we know are of particular interest to family businesses. Trade-offs between growth potential and control present eternal challenges to family businesses in how they organise. The choices between strategies for growth and transformation bring up tensions between family members and professional talent. Family businesses are growing globally at unprecedented rates faster than non-family businesses. And no issue is potentially more toxic than the transition from one generation to another.

More details are available from the enclosed brochure. You may wish to avail the fee benefits of multiple nominations as mentioned in the brochure. Do let us know if you need more nomination forms. Alternatively, photocopies of the form enclosed can be used. The last date for receiving completed nomination forms is September 9, 2020 and last date to avail early bird discount is August 4, 2020.

We thank you in anticipation of your interest and look forward to receiving your nominations.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

FAMILY BUSINESSES:

Organisation, Strategies,
Internationalisation and Succession

September 23 to 25, 2020

Family Businesses: Organisation, Strategies, Internationalisation and Succession

September 23 to 25, 2020

This programme is designed to raise awareness about opportunities, characteristics and challenges unique to family businesses and develop capabilities for organisation, strategies, internationalisation and succession in family businesses at different stages of their growth and evolutionary trajectories. This programme will enable family business owners and non-family leaders in family businesses to build on and leverage distinct strengths of family businesses and think through and develop appropriate solutions to respond to the complexities, uncertainties, and challenges in their businesses for sustainable growth, creation of wealth across generations and attracting and retaining professional talent.

The programme design is based on insights from family business research, case studies of problems experienced by family businesses (small, medium and large) around conflicts over priorities, tensions between existential and normative tasks, pursuing opportunities amidst resource constraints, environmental scanning and developing/expanding relevant capabilities, deciding on organisational issues that arise from task, people and culture, resolving growth stalls, evaluating international business opportunities, professional talent management, and addressing problems of succession.

Programme Content

Theme 1: What is involved in achieving alignment of family needs, priorities, hopes, business objectives and resolving conflicts power, influence of family members and professional talent required to grow the business?

Theme 2: How to engage with 'Strategy-as-practice', inventing and discovering strategies, group relations, designing structures, architecture of systems and sustainability of management processes?

Theme 3: Which challenges of business internationalisation are unique to family businesses? How to decide on appropriate modes of entry, scale and geographical footprint?

Theme 4: How to organize succession processes in family businesses? Best practices to manage key governance and succession processes.

Pedagogy and Faculty

The programme will draw on IIMA Faculty who would bring research insights together with Guest Faculty including Family business CEOs who would share experiences to enable interactive discussions around the cutting edge of family business practices, organisation strategies, internationalisation experiences, and problems associated with continuity and change during succession. There will also be identification and discussion of implications for organisation structures, institutionalised systems and management processes through case studies and exercises. Participants will have opportunities to draw on their own experiences and bring their problems to the programme to work on them.

For Whom?

Family business owners and members of their extended family with executive or non-executive roles in the family business, investors, founders, leaders, professionals associated with family businesses, entrepreneurs, and managers working with family businesses are invited to participate. Women in family businesses are particularly welcome. This programme would be especially useful for CEOs, Directors-executive and non-executive, Presidents, Vice-Presidents, General Managers, Profit Centre Heads and specialists in functions with responsibilities for decisions in family businesses; and for advisors, bankers and officials concerned with promoting entrepreneurship development and policies for small and medium enterprises and for helping larger family businesses to consolidate and transform for growth, diversification, turnarounds, internationalisation and succession in new horizons and trajectories with attention to the special challenges that concern family businesses.

Nominations and Inquiries

Nominations should reach the Executive Education Office latest by September 9, 2020. The last date for early bird discount is August 4, 2020.

Organisational sponsorship is generally required, but can be waived in case the participant is likely to gain significantly from the programme for personal improvement or greater role effectiveness.

All nominations are subject to review and approval by the Faculty Chair. A formal acceptance letter will be sent to selected nominees. Nominees are required to make their travel plans to arrive on September 22, 2020 by 16:00 hours after receiving the acceptance letter.
